- 2018年第4屆「NATPA 廖述宗教授紀念獎」得獎名單公佈

Dear All,

I thank the Committee of Prof. LST Memorial/Research Awards for their wonderful effort in selecting such outstanding Taiwanese who made and still do great contributions to Taiwan from two different generations. Please join us to congratulate 高俊明牧師 and 林昶佐委員.

The committee is working on the awardees' traveling plans for them to attend our Annual Conference for the ceremony on Aug. 4 in DC. We will announce the details about the annual conference and post-conference tour soon. Please be informed.

Have a nice Spring, especially for those in an area with a long winter. :-)

Regards,
Chung-Chih

- Posting of Members' Essay on NATPA website

Dear all,

The NATPA Publication Committee just updated the posting of our members' essays on NATPA's website. The essays were collected in one file every three months, ending on 3/31, 6/30, 9/30, and 12/31. You can reach them through the link below:

www.natpa.org/index.php/members-writings

As you glance through the essays, you will find our members expertise and opinions on current events, as well as the passion and concerns toward our homeland. Some of the essays were contributed by non-NATPA members, through working together with our members in the Discussion Group(s). We sincerely appreciate the contributions of those scholars. You are encouraged to write, too.

If you have an essay published, please notify members through NATPA Forum, and the Publication Committee will collect this information and post it every three months. Sincere thanks to Drs. Li-Lin Cheng and Minze Chien for managing the database and the web-pages.

Regards,

Publication Committee (members: Ching-Chih Chen, Li-Lin Cheng, Minze Chien, Peter Chow, Joseph Kuo, Shyu-tu Lee, Shawna Yang Ryan)

- 2018 NATPA Young Scholars Program - DUE DATE MAY 6th

Dear NATPA Colleagues:

NATPA-Young Scholars Program is currently accepting applications for travel support to attend the 2018 NATPA Annual Conference in Washington, DC, August 4-5, 2018. Could you please help to promote the program, and forward the application link to potential applicants and student organizations.

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdU677t0GNvp3MyhLQz-IcukXGX71X2vRR4khNArmnJ3zV3sw/viewform>

Travel support includes:

- ♣ Airfare (per person) or mileage reimbursement (per car) up to $500
- ♣ Room for 3 nights (8/3, 8/4, 8/5) shared by two
- ♣ Meals during conference, including dinner banquet at the Twin Oaks on August 5
- ♣ Conference registration fee is waived

To be eligible, applicants must be Taiwanese or Taiwanese American graduate students, recent graduates, or postdoctoral scholars. Award recipients are required to give a presentation in the Young Scholars session scheduled for the conference. Subject to the total support request, NATPA plans to award ten or more applications this year. Selection will be based on the applicants' qualifications, evidence of active community involvement, and the proposed topic for presentation. Priority will be given to presentations on applied research in science, technology, culture, education, social study, economics, or political science related to current issues in Taiwan or sustainable development of Taiwan.

Thank you very much for your help.

The Young Scholars Program Committee would also like to thank the Board for the continuous support for the program.

Sincerely,
The Young Scholars Program Committee

- Fulbright Cross-Strait Studies Research Program:

2019-20 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program Competition
Deadline August 1, 2018

Dear all:

The Fulbright US Scholar Program has Cross-Strait Studies Research Program, and they are soliciting the participation. If you or your friends are interested in, please do check it out and apply.

I was a Fulbright Research Scholar to Taiwan, Korea, and Japan for a year in 1970s and was a member of the Scholar Selection Committee for three years in the 2000s. Very good and generous program.

It fits to young scholars. Please let me know if I can help.

CP, please transmit this info to your young scholars as the program is not popularly known. Thanks.

Frank Hsiao

Dear Dr. Hsiao,

I hope this email finds you well. Last year my colleague, Sophia Yang, reached out to you regarding the Cross-Strait Studies Research Program after identifying the work that you do surrounding the Cross-Strait region. I'm writing to let you know that the award is being offered this year as well, for the 2019-2020 academic year.

I hope this opportunity continues to spark your interests. If you would like to apply for the 2019-20 academic year, I would be happy to assist you with the application process. I am accessible by email at eastasiapacific@iie.org.

Sincerely,
Alexa

- Regarding NTU Prospective President

Dear NATPA members,

I would like to report this to our members. As some of you may have known, two NTU professors made negative and illogical comments on NATPA's statements regarding the academic ethnic concerns of the prospective president of NTU. Since I don't think it deserves NATPA to have a 3rd statement for this matter, I took the liberty to rebut the two's comments on behalf of NATPA. <https://newtalk.tw/news/view/2018-03-30/119229> (This is just one of a few reports).

Regards,
Chung-Chih
